

“We Are Still Here”

Join us to view a powerful documentary on the story of Residential Schools as told by survivors.

at

Camlachie United Church

on

Wednesday, April 5th at 7:00pm

All ages are welcome to attend. Refreshments to follow.

The Camlachie UCW invite you to view the powerful documentary, “We Are Still Here” produced by The Right Relations Committee of London Conference of the United Church of Canada. Three women from Walpole Island and Aamjiwnaang share their stories of Residential Schools. Immediately following the film, Carolyn Wilson Wynne will lead a dialogue.

*After the presentation and refreshments, for those who wish to stay, the UCW will conduct the business portion of their regular meeting.